Marion (Va.) Democrat : Mr. Douthat, a worthy shoe-maker of the neighboring village of Wytheville, recently wrote to President-elect Cleveland, asking him to send his measure for a pair of boots to wear on the occasion of his inauguration. The President responded in a very polite letter, thanking Mr. D. for his kindness, and enclosing him a crisp twenty dellar bill with his measure. The money was returned by the patriotic shoemaker, but the President sent it back to him insisting on his receiving it, telling him that he would appreciate the boots just as much and that he would certainly wear the boots on the day of inaugura-
